Encinitas Trails Coalition, (ETC) is recognized and respected by local officials as the “voice of the community” when it comes to our community trails. Acknowledged for their dedication and commitment to protecting and developing our community trail system for Encinitas, this nonprofit organization relies on the community support to continue its’ effort.

Please consider joining us now!

ETC is committed to:

- Providing a presence and voice in support of trails at all levels of city government
- Monitoring the status of existing trail easements and newly designed trails within the city.
- Building public awareness of the recreational, educational and cultural values of trails.
- Participating in the design and development of trails to maximize usage.
- Providing expertise on potential regional trail connections and issues.

Monthly meetings are held in Olivenhain,
the second Monday of each month ~ 7:00pm
